

Psalm 25: To You, O God

Refrain-all

Setting by Marty Haugen

To you, O God, I lift my soul, oh keep me free from shame. I place my trust in you a-lone: your prom-ise and your name.

Verses

(Men) Let not the ones who wish me harm re - (Women) Your ways, O God, make known to me; your (Men) Through - out the day I wait for you: your (Women) So good and ge - 'rous is our God that joice to see me stum - ble. (Women) No - one is shamed who path be my vo - ca - tion. (Men) Lead me in truth and stead-fast grace and mer - cy. (Women) Re - mem - ber not my sin - ners learn the true way. (Men) God leads the poor in waits for you; you raise the weak and hum - ble.

 teach me well, my God and my sal - va - tion.
 youth - ful sins, but, in your love, for - give me.
 right - eous-ness; the hum - ble find God's path-way.

Copyright © 2000 GIA Publications; this arrangement may be used with accompaniment edition to Come, Let Us Sing for Joy